

Decorating for the Easter Hols!

"PAINTING" OUR HOME WITH PRETTY PASTELS FOR SPRINGTIME

ENTRYWAY Twin wreaths laced in and out with pansies, violets and lilacs grace our front entryway, saying, "Welcome, Easter Bunnies!"

GREAT ROOM Lots of windows and cozy places to gather makes this the focal point of our home when entertaining friends and family.

BAKER'S RACK I faclifted this baker's rack, now home to my cookbook collection - including a 1948 Better Homes & Garden's copy from my mother-in-law.

MASTER BEDROOM/GRAPHIC DESIGN STUDIO French pocket doors connect these two rooms, providing privacy for meetings with clients in my office/graphic design center (background of photo).

PAINTING STUDIO This room has plenty of natural light all day - making it the perfect setting for painting.

LIVING ROOM We love this inviting room with its stained glass fireplace screen that echoes the Tiffany-style lamps.

EASTER TREE & BUNNIES These whimsical bunnies "bookend" a tree trimmed with glass balls that I painted to look like Easter eggs.

DINING ROOM April Cornell's (www.aprilcornell.com) lovely rose-splashed table linens dress our dining room table and china cabinet. Company's coming!
