1-5 • OUTDOOR LIVING • These 5 photos picture our entrance with its bicycle mat and pick-up packed with colorful gourds, a wreath to match and a friendly metal rooster at the foot of the table. Pots of red and white geraniums and a border of white wax begonias line the front yard while a huge red sugar maple adds color by out back deck.

6-9 • GREAT ROOM (LIVING /DINING ROOM) • Autumn roosters galore! The "Blue Boy" painting in the living room was created by one of my mother's best friends, Geneva Maloney. April Cornell's vintage pattern "Cock-A-Doodle-Do" and a huge Fitz & Floyd ceramic rooster embellish the great room.

12-13 • MASTER BEDROOM SUITE • With a view of the back yard and the same gorgeous red sugar maple seen from the great room, the decor in both the bedroom and bath echoes the roses that my husband Doug does such a beautiful job with. They are his pride and joy and there's often a bouquet from one or more of the gardens somewhere in the house.

10-11 • THE KITCHEN AND LAUNDRY • The kitchen is also part of the great room. Crisp white cupboards are a perfect background for the red, yellow and orange kitchen tools, rooster tea towels and other touches like the vintage milk bottles in the space above the cupboards. Colorful curtains in the adjacent laundry tie it all together.

14-15 LOWER LEVEL MEDIA ROOM • Finished with a "Lake Cabin" theme, this room is a great place to watch football games on rainy Saturdays with friends or snuggle in with a good movie. Embellishing the fireplace at the west end of this room is a ceramic Autumn-themed village - a fun seasonal addition!
